Think About It!

December was a good month for the children of Casa Sonrisa. In addition to the Christmas presents furnished by the Whitney, Texas congregation, the Casa Kids were treated to a Wednesday through Saturday educational-recreational trip to Saltillo and Monterrey, Mexico. Much of the trip was paid for by benevolent individuals like you. Many things were donated by various sources in Mexico. The group was transported by the university where brother Pedro Rivas is the president.

On Wednesday (Dec. 28) they visited the Museum of the Birds and the Museum of the Desert in Saltillo. The entrance fees were waived by the museum. They went from there to Monterrey where their lodging was at a facility run by the Nueva Leon sports office. The group had breakfast and dinner there. The cost was only about $9 per child.

On Thursday (Dec.29) they visited Plaza Sesamo (Sesame Street) in the morning and Alfa Planetarium in the afternoon. On Friday they enjoyed Biopark and Magic Jungle. All of these places granted free admission to the Casa Kids!

Brother Rivas said the Kids had a terrific time. He asked that we thank all who had anything to do with making this trip possible. "THANK YOU!"
